ORAL ORDER
(11-07-2007)

SUNIL KUMAR SINHA, J

Heard.

This petition is filed for quashing of the order dated 02.1.2007 and also for striking out the alleged observations which are made by the learned Special Judge in his order for grant of anticipatory bail filed u/s 438 Cr.P.C.

Learned counsel for the petitioner firstly submits that he is not pressing the petition for quashment of the order. However, he submits that the petitioner, who is the complainant, apprehends that the observations made by the Special Court, Rajnandgaon, while passing the impugned order, which according to him are in favour of the accused persons, shall effect the merits of the case at the time of trial.

Needless to say that such an apprehension is baseless. The observations made by a Court while granting or refusing bail applications are only for the disposal of the said application and they are unconcerned with the merits of the trial.

There appears to be no merits in this petition and the same is dismissed at the motion stage itself.
